Jill,
It hardly seems possible that we're Seniors, so many things have happened that it seems as if we're changing every day. I don't know, maybe that's just a sign that we're growing up.
Anyway, I'll always treasure my memories of you and remember all our trials, tribulations, and situations that we've been through.
I want to wish you all the luck
in the world, and my best wishes forever.

Always,

The Wildcats entered the Heart of Iowa Conference this year and promptly became the new champions of the conference. The squad compiled an outstanding record of seven wins and only one loss. The only setback occurred at the Homecoming contest with South Hamilton which was decided the final quarter 26-25. In order to capture the conference crown, the Wildcats traveled to West Marshall, unbeaten in sixteen straight games. On a bitterly cold night, the Wildcats played a tremendous game and brought home a 27-7 victory. As far as is known this is the most successful Wildcat squad in history. The Wildcats were able to grind out 2,578 yards rushing, compared to their opponents 302. In the air, yards gained were 608 by Carlisle and 525 by their opponents. The Wildcats rolled up a total of 297 points while limiting their foes to 60.

Several rewards were given for outstanding achievement. All-conference selections were Gary Johnston, Jack Shoop, Ron Wyckoff, Jim Garnett, Dan Howard, and Larry Noland. Morris Sinclair, Gary Noland, and Gary Sinclair received honorable mention. Gary Johnston and Jim Garnett received All-state honorable mention. Ron Wyckoff was chosen lineman of the year, and Gary Johnston was chosen back of the year.

Ants!!!

In October the Juniors presented two one-act plays. "Antic Spring" was about six teenagers on a picnic and their experiences. (Judy Patterson) Gwen and Sam (Denny Adamson) were constantly breaking up and then making up again. Ginger (Jo Reeves) discovered that Robert (George Owens) was not the boy for her. Albert (Bruce Kerr) and Blossom (Shirley Gaston), who were the "just barely" teenagers, acted like "just barely teenagers." The play involved unauthorized swimming, unwanted hiking, unappreciated ants, and a very unnecessary rainstorm.

"Balcony Scene" was the story of a man who went to his own funeral. Steve DePenning played the man and Dave Berg was his Heavenly Friend. Colleen Wittkowski plays the girl who decides, much to the dismay of the man, that she can live even though he is gone. Mary Enderson played a wife and Doug Kingsbury was her weak-hearted husband. Both are friends of the man who now that he's gone think only of the times he was drunk and wrecked his car. Sharon See played the conceited daughter who was a friend of the girl and Karen Bruce played her sensitive mother. Denny Lester played a gangster who added a bit of humor to the otherwise serious play. The plays were under the direction of Mrs. Parson.

Our senior year was built of LAST TIMES—the last football game, the last basketball game, the last semester tests, the last get-together of friends. These Last Times were accompanied sometimes by sighs of relief, sometimes by an air of giddy excitement, and sometimes by a true sense of sadness. For the last time we elected class officers: Rick Dove, president; Kris Tonsi, vice-president; Valerie Mills, secretary; and Connie Griffin, treasurer. We chose forest green and gold for our class colors and the carnation as our flower. It was a busy year. We worked hard to earn money for our trip to Chicago. We sold Christmas cards and trees and had a car wash and a bake sale. Seniors provided leadership for the school's organizations and athletic teams. Some seniors found time to study, for several of them joined National Honor Society and many appeared on the honor roll. Marc Ewers and Nancy Dutcher earned the scholastic honors for the class by being named as National Merit Semi-finalists. Yes, it WAS a wonderful year—as senior years are meant to be. It was a busy year, filled with last times, yet sprinkled with enough first times to tempt us to peek into the future. The end that comes when we walk down the aisle to our Mecca of graduation also marks the beginnings of great futures for a GREAT class!

The newspaper came out regularly until the yearbook deadline rolled around, when all publications energy was devoted to finishing THE BOOK. Up until that time the staff worked hard and published one of the best papers in CHS history. With much blood, sweat, toil, tears, and time Peggy and her staff were able to answer the inevitable question of "WHEN is the paper coming out?"

Jill, (my favorite 1st hour library assistant) ☺

There are so many things I could say but it would take too long. Remember (I know you won't forget) all the good times you had cheerleading and just being in high school. It will be one of the best times of your life. Always keep your sunny disposition and smile and they will take you a long way in life. Good luck and best wishes for the future. We'll miss you next year when we put up locker signs so don't forget to come and see us. Be a good girl.

Miss Green

Dill-O

I don't think I can write on a page what our friendship has meant to me - (cause I'm nothing 2 say) HaHa Well, Dill what's happened 2 us? I think we've changed. We've skipped school together and — together and — together &c. etc. You probably get sick and tired of me complaining & you but you don't know how much just talking 2 someone helps. enough of that serious stuff. Well Dido You're the funniest, stupidest Cutest fickled pickled girl I know and one of the sincerest too. I hope you get your shine Day — like mine Some day. great Pedro

You should have been in Page 23 Can you believe W.H.S. - we, most, honored

Oh have to continue this in blue ink I lost my black one. We're Seniors now and the best class Carlisle ever had or will have. We're really gonna paint Chicago red! We didn't succeed in selling the school - will have 2 try again. I hope before we're old and gray we can go on a trip together - I hope we continue 2 be friends for a long long time. I really wish you the best in everything. A good thing we don't drink Carlisle water

Love,
Connie

Jello-

Everyone has a different name for you but I like mine best! HA I hate to write in these things cause you can't possibly say the things you feel - We've really had some funny times but we're still alive although there were times I never thought I'd make it & I know you felt that way too! We did it!!

I'll always remember cheerleading how could I forget it - I'll cry when I look at our pictures from football that was the happiest 3 months in my whole life.

We're really going to have alot more fun yet but it's almost over. I've looked forward to Chicago since 8th grade but I goofed - Jill promise me you'll never goof like I did! OK - if you want to talk I'm still the same even tho my name has changed I won't OK hon - I wish you the best of luck in all the world. May God Bless

Valerie

Joey -

I really don't know how to start this!! I could say, remember all the great times we've had, but everyone says that. I could say always stay the way you are & you'll go far but that seems to be a pretty common phrase also. All I can say that other people can't is that I've always & always will, value your friendship more than you'll probably ever know. I honestly think you have E.S.P. & sometimes I think I do too, because you usually know how I feel & sometimes I know what your going through too. This really cracks me up to think we've only got a few more days left (not that I love school that much) but just thinking I'll never see the kids again & all (sob sob) - Oh well, I guess that's life!! Well I've messed this page up enough already so I'll quit & just say I hope you find what you want in life & out of life & if that's truly what you want I hope you get it. Truly!!!

Bestest of everything &

P.S. We never had Wiots of Wruck!?! (remember) our happy fizzies party!!!

Sue

Well, Well, we've come quite a ways together-
at least I think!
We've more grown up than when we were freshmen. We really enjoyed knowing you. You're so lively and full of fun and things to do. We have really had a lot of fun.
Keep smiling, don't forget to laugh as often as possible, and hang on to Rick-he's one in a million! (So are you!!) Good Luck!

Love,
Peggy

To one of the nicest, sweetest, prettiest, smartest, cheerleaders I've met in the Senior class at CHS. Have a great summer & enjoy seeing that master at work. Seem to have fun returning you. And I wish you the future and hope you have a smile & personality and keep your sweet disposition. Take care.

Love & luck,
Connie

P.S. And don't forget to feed Rad. "70" Vicki "70"

Tim —

I guess what I will have to say, that this has been a fun year. I wish you lots of luck in the world. I will see you at work & know, keep your cute smile + sweet personality and you'll go far in life.

Love & luck,
Connie

Jill - Well, our "GREAT" Senior year is almost gone. It seems impossible that we'll not be back here next year. Best of luck in the future in all that you do.

Love,
Kathy
